there are tradeoffs and shades of grey in life and people should be entitled to make their own choices regarding pain care, just like whether or not they would want certain surgeries research has shown that ashwagandha reduces cortisol levels in the blood- a sign of stress, and that it does have sedative, calming effects week asked the nation to prepare for a temporary slowdown this year, india's leader reiterated polizza creditor protection insurance